WASHINGTON.

News from Mexico-Nominations --Confirmations--House Committees.

WASHINGTON, October 29.—The Cabinet had a special meeting to-day.

The President leaves on a special car for Richmond early to-morrow.

An effort will be made to-day to secure adjournment before the November election. Should it fail the prospects are unfavorable for legislation until after that event.

Information has been received from Mexico that taking into consideration the necessity which exists of giving an impulse to the exportation of agricultural and industrial products, the President has ordered that it be permitted to foreign steam and sail vessels to carry silver and gold coins from one part of the Republic to another, so there may be no want of hard money cash on hand of the same. To prevent the realization of mercantile transactions relative to the exportation of National products and to avoid the abuses which may be attempted, the custom houses on issuing the corresponding permits and extending the respective pass of which the return pass shall be presented, shall require a bond to his satisfaction from whomsoever it may belong that he may prove within a prudent period indicated was destined to the object for which it was sent with the understanding that the want of this proof in its due time will alone be a sufficient cause for proceeding immediately to require the payment of the duties pertaining to the amount sent.

SENATE.—Ingalls, of Kansas, introduced a bill to fix the date of the meeting of the first regular session of the Forty-Fifth Congress, upon the first Monday in November. Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections.

HOUSE—Call of states John Baxter of Tennessee, Circuit Judge of the 6th district; Parsons District Attorney in Alabama; Wm. Henry Smith, Collector of Customs at Chicago; Jos. D. Brady, Collector of the second Virginia district.

Fitzsimmons, Marshal of Georgia; Wells, Consul General at China; Walden, Marshal of West Tennessee; Parsons, Marshal of Alabama, at a hasty glance discovers no other Southern or general nominations. The House call states that it progresses slowly with the many bills introduced, which will delay the announcement of the committees to a late hour in the afternoon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 29.—Nominations: Defrees for public printer; E. Platt Stratton as inspector of steamboats for 2d District. Hugh J. Campbell, of Louisiana, attorney for Dakota; Postmasters, Wyckershaw of Mobile, Thompson of Memphis, Jones of Nashville, and Thompson of Louisville.

Confirmations: Upon the second, Comptroller Gimfillan as United States Treasurer; Bales of New York as Examiner-in-chief of patent office; Postmasters: Wofford of Corinth, Miss., Greene of Jackson, Miss., and Waddell of Okalona, Miss.

The committee on privileges and elections of the Senate met, but adjourned, the matter not having been printed.

HOUSE.—The call of States for bills of reference occupied the House for five hours, and the consequence was the introduction of the largest number of bills that were ever presented in one day in the history of Congress. The number reached eight hundred and forty-five. They might be classified into some half dozen prominent subjects: The repeal of the resumption act; the remonetization of silver; the repeal of the bankruptcy law; the abolition of taxes on the sale of tobacco by producers; the extension of pension laws to the South; the repeal of the test oath, and appropriations for works of internal improvement. Among the latter were bills appropriating three million dollars for the Mississippi levees, and one million for the Missouri river.

The committees were announced. Wood of New York is chairman of ways and means, and Atkins of Tennessee chairman of appropriations. Adjourned to Wednesday.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Effects of the Explosion--King of Spain's Wedding Day--The French Second Ballot.

LONDON, October 29.—Two hundred and fifty miners perished in the High Clanton colliery explosion.

Joseph Durham, the sculptor, is dead.

It is reported that the marriage of King Alfonso, of Spain, to the Princess Mercedes, daughter of Duke de Montpencer, has been fixed for the 23d of January next.

It is said that the obelisk ship "Cleopatra," with the caisson containing the Egyptian obelisk, will remain at Ferral all the winter pending the determination of the question of salvage in the Court of Admiralty, the owners of the steamer "Fitz Maurice," which recovered the caisson after it was abandoned in the gale by the steamer "Olga," and towed it into Ferral, having refused the contractors' offer for that service.

PARIS, October 29.—On the second ballot yesterday the government candidate was elected in Pau and Chatteau Reux. The Republican members of the former chamber gained both cases.

Results of the second ballot yesterday so far as known show that nine government candidates and two Republicans were elected. In three arrondissements, the Republican candidates claiming they were elected on the 14th inst., did not stand, intending to submit their claim to the Chamber of Deputies. Republicans however did not attach much importance to these supplemental elections, because excluding three uncontested arrondissements above mentioned, ten second ballots were rendered necessary simply by division of the conservative vote between opposing Royalist and Bonapartist candidates, one of whom has now withdrawn, rendering the result certain.

PARIS, October 29.—Soliel again today insists that either President Mac Mahon or the Ministry must resign, and there is no other way out of the crisis, Soliel says, and it naturally prefers that the Ministry should resign.

A conservative paper, the L'Assemblee Nationale, declares it can confirm the statement of the Pays, that the resignation of the Ministers has already been determined upon in principle.

LONDON, October 29.—Later intelligence from Paris shows that fifteen second ballots were held yesterday, resulting in the election of eleven conservatives and four republicans. By this result the Chamber will stand, 320 republicans and 210 conservatives.

[NOTE.—The result of yesterpay's balloting as reported in this dispatch do not admit the claim of the three republicans, that they were elected on the 14th inst., as mentioned in a previous dispatch.]

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

Movements Against Silistria--Official Appointments.

LONDON, October 29.—Zimmerman commanding the army of Dabrudscha is bringing heavy siege guns against Selistria.

Biellowski, a Pole, known in the Turkish army as General Nehiad, has appointed Suleiman Pasha Chief of Staff, and General Mina, a Belgian, to command a cavalry division at Rasgrad.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 29.—A special dispatch from Alexdropal to Golos, October 27th, gives no later information about Kars than that place is completely invested. The dispatch says that General Ferguhasoff has occupied Bayazid.

LONDON, October 29.—A Reuter from Bucharest dated to-day, says that yesterday a body of Russians carried the Turkish position at Telische, west of Pievna. One Pasha, several officers and seven companies of Turkish troops were taken prisoners and three cannons captured.

Ex-President Grant in Paris.

NEW YORK, October 28.—A Paris dispatch says, among the callers on Grant yesterday were Count de Paris and Mlle McMahon. The General will attend the special representation of the Italian Opera given in his honor on the 8th of November.

A panic was occasioned in Niblo's Garden last night by some one in the gallery crying fire. The house was packed, and a rush was made for the doors. As far as could be ascertained no person was injured. Several ladies were carried fainting into the vestibule. It is probable that the alarm was raised to give the pickpockets an opportunity to work.

Death of a Clerk--Fire--R. R Conductors' Association.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 29.—Winchester Graesom, a clerk in the comptroller's office at Columbia, S. C., jumped from the rear platform of a railroad car two miles from Augusta, and was killed.

A fire this morning destroyed a large tenement house and injured other property. Loss $12,000.

Senator Morton's Condition.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 29.—Senator Morton's condition at 1 o'clock, this afternoon, was about the same as reported last night. His stomach refuses to retain nourishment.

Probabilities.

For the South Atlantic States, increasing cloudiness, rain areas, southerly winds, stationary temperature and stationary or lower pressure.

SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Reports of Committees--Davidson College---The Presbyterian Board of Publication---Other Important Matters.

(Condensed from the Charlotte Observer, Oct. 26th.)

MORNING SESSION.

The synod met promptly at 9:30 with a full attendance, and was opened with prayer.

The narrative of the Wilmington Presbytery, omitted from the reports presented on Thursday, was read and referred to the committee on the state of religion.

The statistical report and the report on "systematic benevolence," from the same presbytery, were read and referred.

The committee to whom was referred the report of the directors of Union Theological Seminary, reported, at some length, expressing gratification at the many encouraging features of the directors report, and making several recommendations.

Under the above report Revs. F H. Johnston and Jas. M. Anderson, were re-elected as trustees, and Elder Geo. Chadburg, of Wilmington, was elected in the place of the other member of this class of trustees, who had declined re-election.

The name of Mr. D. A. Davis was dropped from the list of trustees, under the rules, and Mr. Murdock, of Salisbury, was appointed in his place.

Dr. Hepburn, President of Davidson College, being present, was called on to make a report to synod concerning the condition of the college.

His report is a most favorable one in every respect. He was followed by others who spoke in the highest terms of the work of the college. All of the speakers urged upon the trustees and the faculty the necessity of more advertising—they were all too modest.

Resolutions were adopted looking to an early publication of a history of the church, and appointing a committee to collect material for the same.

On a report from the committee on records a discussion arose in regard to certain church matters transacted on the Sabbath, in which the idea prevailed that there are certain works pertaining to the good of the church that ought not to be done on the Sabbath.

The resolution to hold the next Synod with the first Presbyterian church in Wilmington was reconsidered, and Goldsboro was unanimously chosen as the place of meeting.

A resolution proposed by the Mecklenburg Presbytery in regard to bills and overtures, covering the subject of publication, namely: that a committee be appointed, to whom should be assigned this whole subject of publication; that they be requi ed to watch the progress of results, and report such action as may be necessary to protect the interest of the church within her bounds, was, after considerable discussion, adopted.

EVENING SESSION.

The synod met at 7:30, and was opened with religious services and sermon by Rev. Mr. Darnell, of Milton.

The committee on statistics reported that four churches had been organized—three in Orange Presbytery and one in Mecklenburg. One minister had died in Concord Presbytery. Three ministers had been dismissed—one from Orange, one from Mecklenburg, and one from Wilmington. Four ministers had been received—two by Orange, one by Concord and one by Mecklenburg.

The balance of the evening session was occupied by special order of the evening—the report on foreign missions—on which there were several interesting addresses. From the report it appeared there had been a falling off in the missionary collection during the past year.

The Moderator appointed a number of committees, and the synod adjourned.

SATURDAY, Oct. 27th.

The synod re-assembled at 9:30, and was opened with the usual ceremonies.

The committee appointed to prepare a paper expressive of the feelings of the synod in reference to the death of the late Rev. Jesse Rankin, reported such a paper which was a lopted.

The special hour for 10 o'clock—the report on education—was called, and Rev. Luther McKinnon appeared and read the report. Among other facts stated, were the following: There are under the care of the Presbyteries composing the synod, twenty-five candidates for the ministry, seventeen of whom are receiving aid from the Church. $2,016 had been contributed during the year ending April, 1877. One presbytery (Concord) had sytemized and applied the loan principle in aiding candidates, and the agent reported that it was working satisfactorily.

Rev. Dr. Waddell, secretary of the board of education of the General Assembly, and Rev. Dr. Smith, of Union Theological Seminary, were severally introduced and addressed the synod on the subject of ministerial education.

Rev. L. McKinnon, agent of education, then presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That this synod recommend to our several presbyteries to transmit to the General Assembly's committee any surplus funds they may have on hand after doing their own work.

2nd. That the last Thursday in February be observed as a day of prayer for the youth in our various institutions of learning.

3rd, That we have heard the addresses of Rev. J. N. Waddell, D. D., secretary of education, and Rev. M. Smith, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, and, as a synod, would assure them of our deep and abiding interest in the great work of education which they represent.

The report of the agent was received and adopted and the resolutions above were passed.

Report of the committee on records was submitted and disposed of.

Reports from committees on records and on overtures were ma le and disposed of.

The committee appointed to report on the method of dealing with delegates to synod who habitually absent themselves from synod, presented resolutions, which after amendment, read as follows:

WHEREAS, Some ruling-elders, appointed to represent the churches, and some ministers, members of this synod, are habitually absent from its sessions without excuse rendered, therefore Resolved, 1st. That the stated clerk be directed immediately after each stated meeting to write to each absentee, and to each session not represented, and inform them that the synod requires them to report the reason of this absence.

2d. That the calling of the roll at the close of the sessions of synod be continued, in order to ascertain whether a quorum be present, and also in order that presbyteries can be informed of the presence or absence of members.

The balance of the morning session was taken up in hearing addresses from Dr. Smith, of Union Theological Seminary, on the relation of the Seminary to the church, and from Dr. Waddell on the subject of the colored seminary, under charge of Dr. Stilman, of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

EVENING SESSION.

Appointments for preaching in the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Lutheran churches of the city, for Sunday, were announced.

Rev. J. H. Colton then read the following, which was adopted without debate:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Lord to grant, this year, very generally to North Carolina, good crops; and

WHEREAS, Our people failed to give of their means to the Lord as largely as His work demands, and there is no general turning from sin unto Christ on the part of sinners,

Resolved, 1st, That there is a call for a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and that our people be exhorted to observe earnestly such da of thanksgiving as may be set by our Governor, and that it be made a day of special prayer for an outpouring of the Holy Ghost within our bounds.

Resolved, 2d, That if the Governor should fail to set such a day, our moderator do so through the North Carolina Presbyterian.

Usual resolutions of thanks were passed, when, after singing the 133d psalm, the moderator declared the business concluded and the synod adjourned with the benediction.

Judge Cox.

To the Editor of the News:

SIR—The court in Davidson adjourned last Friday evening, and I cannot forego the pleasure of expressing, through the DAILY NEWS, the impression Judge Cox has made here, and my hearty commendation and approval, as well as that of the bar, court officers, jurors and people generally, of the courteous, able, impartial and dignified manner with which he presided in dispensing law and justice, and dispatching a large amount of business on the dockets.

Of fine presence, and unostentatious bearing, polite, respectful and patient in hearing, he is, nevertheless, quick in his apprehension of the strong and true point in the case, and decided and firm in his opinions and convictions. And while he dispatches business with rapid facility (perhaps a little too fast for the easy comfort of the bar and dilatory solicitors), yet his charges to the jury are so clear, direct, impartial and unimpassioned, and he holds the scales of justice in such nice equipoise between the parties to the suit, as not only to win merited praise from his hearers, but to remind them of the pure and able judiciary of ante-bellum days.

Such is the impression Judge Cox made at this court, and such is the reputation he is winning on this circuit, proving thereby that Gov. Vance displayed superior judgment and knowledge of men by appointing him; for, though a comparatively young man, he is destined to become a distinguished judge, an ornament to the judiciary and an honor to the State.

Solicitor Dobson was absent, and his solid sense, jovial face, happy retort and dramatic powers greatly missed; but Capt. Frank Robbins was appointed in his place, and discharged the duties of the office with ability, success and general satisfaction.

LEXINGTON.

New Railroad Time Schedule for the South--Convention of Northern and Southern Railroad Officials.

[Baltimore Sun, Oct 25.]

A convention of representatives of the Southern railroads and of lines connecting north with New York was held at Barnum's Hotel yesterday to determine a new schedule of time for the Southern mail and fast line. It was the first time in many years that a convention of representatives of the Northern and Southern roads have been held, and the Southern officials did the courtesy to meet their Northern railroad friends in Baltimore. Twenty-eight railroads were represented at the convention. It was expected that concessions would be made that would prove very beneficial to Southern traders, but the practical result of the convention was the adoption of a winter schedule similar to that in operation last winter.

The convention met shortly after noon, and after appointing a committee to prepare a schedule adjourned till 5 P. M., permitting many of the members to attend the races. H. F. Kenney, superintendent of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, was president, and W. F. Allen, editor Travellers' Official Railway Guide, secretary.

G. J. Forecare, general manager of the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-line, stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of organizing a regular semi-annual convention to construct time tables upon Southern railroads.

On motion of F Thompson, general manager Pennsylvania railroad, a committee of seven was appointed to prepare a time sheet, as follows: T. M. R. Talcott, Richmond and Danville railroad; Wm. McRae, Western and Atlantic; R. R. Bridges, Atlantic Coast line; J. M. Robinson, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac; F. Thompson, Pennsylvania railroad; H. S. Haines, Atlantic and Gulf; E. P. Alexander, Western, of Alabama.

On motion the president was added to the committee.

The committee reported on the reassembling of the convention in favor of adopting a schedule similar to that of last winter, which was adopted. The schedule will go into effect November 11 next. By the new schedule the Southern mail will leave New York at 6:30 P. M., half hour later than at present, and will arrive in Richmond at 8.08 A. M., an hour later than at by the present schedule. By a new schedule of Southern roads, however, this train will reach New Orleans an hour and a half earlier than by present time. Jacksonville, Florida, will also be reached earlier. The return mail arrive at New York at 9:35 A. M., instead of 6:40 A. M., present time. A schedule was proposed that would enable Savannah merchants to receive mail and send replies the same day. The convention adjourned about 7 P. M. to meet in Richmond the third Wednesday in April. The details of the schedule was left to a committee of officers.

LADIES AT THE FARO TABLE.

How the Fair Sex in San Francisco Indulge in Gambling.

In one of the most fashionable and respectable quarters in San Francisco, near Market street, stands a large and elegant looking house. The hundreds of people who daily pass it think it is a private residence, little dreaming that it is a female gambling institution, as it is, and in which thousands of dollars not unfrequently change hands nightly.

It is patronized by men and women who belong to the wealthy class, and who move in aristocratic circles. Cards of invitation are issued bearing simply a monogram, which gives admission to the possessor. The names of some of the patrons would astouish the community were they but known. No vehicle of any kind is allowed to stand in front of this house, and those who frequent it must keep their carriages at least two blocks away. This is required to avoid suspicion. The front part of the house is always enshrouded in quietude. At night dim lights are burned in the front rooms. The upper half of the inside window blinds is thrown back, and to the passer-by nothing is to be seen to arouse the slightest suspicion of the true character of the house.

The manager of this institution is a woman, who came here from St. Louis about a year ago. At one time she figured in Washington as a lobbyist. She is a lovely brunette, of queenly appearance and dresses elegantly. On your entrance to this abode you are generally welcomed by madame in a back parlor, brilliantly lighted and handsomely furnished, into which you have been ushered by the colored servant who has answered your bell call. From thence you are conducted into the saloon of the establishment down stairs. This apartment is gorgeously furnished. The carpet is of an elegant pattern, with heavy curtains and hangings to match, while the furniture is rich and massive. The walls are adorned with beautiful pictures, and articles of vertu are to be seen in profusion. In this apartment, night after night, into the wee sma' hours, are to be found leading merchants and stock brokers with the wives of some of their business associates, all engaged in play, which is only interrupted between the hours of 12 o'clock and 1 o'clock by a lunch of cake and wine.

The principal games played by these fashionable gamblers are faro, Boston, and whist. Occasionally roulette and rouge et noir are played. The dealer of the faro table is a beautiful-looking blonde, who passes for the step-daughter of madame, the manager. She generally dresses in a white lace wrapper, with a lustrous diamond ring sparkling from an extremely white and delicately shaped hand. She is an adept with the cards, if one may judge by the way she handles them.

There are other females, elegantly attired, in attendance, who are connected with the establishment, and who are always ready to take a hand in any game of chance that is proposed, and in which they are proficient. While not engaged they usually while away the time in playing billiards in an adjoining room. The fascination and excitement of gaming are such that every night the establishment is well patronized. It is understood that Madame is backed by several heavy capitalists of the city.

ILLICIT STILLS.

(Special dispatch to the New York Times.)

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 26.—Blockading in tobacco and whiskey, and also the illicit distillation of grain and fruit, in the western part of this State continue on a large scale in spite of the vigilance of the revenue officers. Revenue Agent Wagner is still operating in this State. Men under him have just returned from a raid in Wilkes County. It appears that B. F. Jones, of Yadkin County, a man of standing and a Republican, having been sheriff of the county and a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1875, has been heavily engaged for several years in the illicit distillation of whiskey. He has not distilled direct himself, but has had as many as 14 distilleries running at one time by parties employed by him for this purpose. Six months ago Jones fell out with some of his distillers, and gave information which caused these men to be arrested and punished. Inasmuch as distilleries on the same branch in the mountains, and within a quarter of a mile of each other, were seized and others working for Jones, and with whom Jones was on good terms, were not disturbed, the suspicion of these men was excited. Finally, it leaked out that Jones was the informer, and now these men have informed on Jones, making 14 separate and distinct charges, on any one of which Jones may be sent to the Penitentiary. The raid in Wilkes captured 53 barrels of whiskey and three stills. Fourteen barrels were saved; the rest was destroyed. It has been discovered that while Jones was a member of the convention and in this city, he sent home a number of barrel-heads which had been used, but on which the stamps had not been destroyed. These heads were put into barrels made for the purpose, and the whisky was hauled off in wagons to the dominions of Wade Hampton. About 50 men are implicated with Jones. A number have told all they know. It has been discovered that a tobacco manufacturer in Salem, by the name of Fries, has been "swapping" Jones blockade tobacco for blockade whiskey. The factory of Fries will be seized this week.

Gov. Hampton at Raleigh.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Review says: "The principal event of the Fair was the presence and speech of Gov. Hampton. His main idea was an appeal for peace in the South and reconciliation. To this end he deprecated political agitation, and said that politics was the meanest trade any man ever pursued. Whether it is not better to continue political agitation in the South until our rights are secured and our interests better protected is a question upon which many abler men in the South than the gallant Hampton will take issue with him. When Vance and Hampton came upon the grounds there was much enthusiasm in the immense throng that welcomed them with shouts. About the same time there came upon the grounds another large-hearted North Carolinian and eloquent champion of the people, than whom no man possesses more of the admiration and heart of the Democratic masses of our State. He, too, has met with the heartiest ovations here this week. Bingham's cadets, whose military drills and good behavior have secured high and universal commendation this week in Raleigh, greeted him with warmth, especially as he walked the grounds yesterday among the distinguished men of the State. This is as it should be. I need scarcely say that I allude to Judge Fowle, who is most favorably and prominently mentioned here this week as the coming man for our next Governor. It is plain that there is no more popular man in North Carolina than this eloquent orator and able statesman. We never had a better governor than he would make."

THE LIBERIAN EXODUS.

North Carolina Negroes Petition Congress.

[Washington Cor. N. Y. Herald, Oct 26.]

Quite a delay occurred in the adjournment of the House this afternoon, at the termination of the Patterson Belford contest, by the introduction of a number of petitions of an interesting character. Mr. Cox had moved for the adjournment of the House when Mr. Garfield requested permission to introduce a petition of so singular a nature that he desired it to be read. The permission was granted, and the way was thus paved for the introduction of many other petitions. Mr. Garfield's petition, signed by 210 colored men, asked Congress to assist them to remove to Liberia, where they wished to establish homes. The petition was forwarded to Washington by Rev. Dr. Sampson, of the American Colonization Society, and the petitioners are residents of North Carolina. The petitioners say that they are the descendants of African slaves, brought here by force; that they have labored without compensation for the benefit of white men, and now, desiring to return to Africa, are without means to pay their passage. The required aid is not asked for as a charity but as a debt. The petitioners say that they are convinced, by the experience of the last twelve years, that laborers are increasing and that competition with white labor leaves many colored men unemployed. Besides, colored men can occupy none but subordinate positions. The republic of Liberia offers the colored men land, freedom from competition with others than their own race, and the entire continent of Africa is open to them. The petitioners ask for assistance to the sum of $100 each, which, with the assistance given by the American Colonization Society, will enable them to reach Liberia and live until homes for themselves and their children can be obtained. The petition was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor.

Johnston County Correspondence.

ARCHER LODGE, Oct. 25, 1877.

Editor of the News:

SIR: The crops in this portion of Johnston county are, upon the whole, very fine, although cotton will average only about three-fourths. The weed is as fine as we ever had, but the dry weather, and then a profusion of rain, caused the squares to drop, especially those of the second growth. The corn crop is very fine, much better than the usual average. In wheat we raised a fine crop, and a larger acreage than ever will be sown this fall. The oat crop was light.

This used to be a large turpentine section, but lately the orchards are nearly all boxed. Our farmers are learning that it pays to raise their own provisions, and are taking more interest in cereals and bacon than ever before.

A few copies of the Farmer and Mechanic have found their way down here, and from what I hear will be a very popular paper, especially if the Agricultural Board make it what they profess they are going to.

The NEWS is popular, more so than ever, on account of its mild course.

There is a prosperous school here under the management of Captain Phillips, who is doing a good work for education.

To-day was the first day of the tax-gathering, but few attended, as but few of the farmers have yet sold their cotton. Should anything of interest occur in this section I will inform you.

Yours, &c., E.

A Neglectful Liver.

The bile has a three fold part assigned to it by the great manager, Nature. It assists in the digestive process, acts as a coloring agent of the blood, and is essential to the evacuative function. When the liver grows torpid, complete chaos ensues in the stomach and bowels; the bile is injected into the circulation in large quantities, and constipation and indigestion are produced. Pains under the right shoulder blade and through the right side, headaches, vertigo, yellowness of the skin, furred tongue and nausea, also follow. But these and other symptoms of biliousness, and the disorders which accompany it, are entirely removed by Hostetters Stomach Bitters, that ben gn rectifier of organic disturbance and remedy for physical weakness. Intermittent and remittent fever, urinary and uterine troubles, rheumatism, gout and other maladies, also yield to the remedial influence of the great corrective and invigorant. It is the people's chosen remedy.

An Open Letter to the Public.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1877.

I have devoted twenty years of patient study to the Liver and its relations to the human body. In search of a remedy which would restore it, when diseased, to its normal condition. The result of that labor has been the production of exert a peculiar influence on the system. Their action is prompt, and their good effects are felt in a few hours. A quarter of a century of the study of the Liver has demonstrated that it exerts a greater influence over the system than any other organ of the body, and when diseased the entire organism is deranged. It is specially for the healing of this vital organ that I have spent so many years of toil, and having found the remedy, which has proved the greatest boon ever furnished the afflicted. Shall they be deprived of its benefits, and a vile imitation imposed upon them?

Let the honest people of America see to it that they are not defrauded. Scrutinize the label closely, see that it bears all the marks above mentioned, and buy the medicine only from respectable dealers. It can be found everywhere.

Very respectfully,
W. H. TUTT,

GILES & CO.:

Gents: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment, with the very best results. I have found it as an application in inflammation of the Lungs (Pneumonia), or in Pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In cases of irregularity of the heart's action depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment, and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend the same to both the public and the profession. Yours truly,

SOUTHERN NEWS.

The Georgia State Fair cleared over eight thousand dollars.

The Alabama State Grange Fair commences Tuesday, October 30, and ends Saturday, November 3.

Among the candidates for the House of Delegates from Richmond is W. Wirt Henry, a grandson of Patrick Henry.

Washington county got the premium at the Georgia State Fair for the best acre of corn. The yield was only fourteen barrels.

At the Virginia State Fair, the Richmond Blues, just reorganized, under the command of Captain John Wise, will parade for the first time in sixteen years.

A negro who had his leg broken while working for a contractor in Nashville, Tenn., has sued him for $10,000 damages. The contractor paid all the expenses of his treatment while confined to his house by the injury.

The Alabama State Fair comes off at Montgomery this week; the Mississippi State Fair will be held at Jackson November 12; South Carolina, at Columbia, November 13; Texas, at Austin, November 13; Florida, at Jacksonville, February 12.

The tobacco and snuff factory of J. E. Venable & Son, near Petersburg, Va., was destroyed by fire on Friday night. The building and machinery was valued at $5,000, and the tobacco [illegible] of which was consumed.

A Revolutionary relic in the shape of a blacksmith's anvil is now owned by William Maudlin, of Keowee county, South Carolina. It was the property of his great-grandfather, and was in use during the Revolutionary war in manufacturing swords to arm the gallant men who followed the gallant General Marion.

Richmond Enquirer: The colored battalion of this city will be invited to take part in the military display on the occasion of the President's reception. The battalion is composed of the Attucks Guard, Captain Josiah Crump; Virginia Grays, Captain Benjamin Scott; Carney Guard, Captain John Booker; Union Guard, of Manchester, Captain J. H. Cunningham.

Richmond Whig: The Association of the Army of Northern Virginia will have their annual reunion in the hall of the House of Delegates on Thursday night, November 1st. The annual address will be delivered by Mr. Leigh Robinson, formerly of this city, now of Washington. Subject: "The Battle of the Wilderness." After the proceedings of the meeting the grand banquet will take place at the St. Claire Hotel.

Hinds county, Miss., in which the capital of the State is situated, and which piled up a Democratic majority of several thousand at the last election is likely to be lost to the Democracy this year, so the Mississippi papers think, by an unprecedented rush of Independents to the front. There are Independents in other counties, but not near as many as in Hinds. In that unfortunate portion of the State there are strikers, Independents, National Unionists and half a dozen other so-called parties bidding for the negro votes.

STATE NEWS.

Another mad dog has been killed in Rutherford county.

Gaston Superior Court has been postponed to the second week of the term.

Danbury Reporter: We regret to learn that John A. Covington, of this county lost a fine barn of tobacco by fire, a few days ago.

Blue Ridge Blade: Mark Lytle, colored, while assisting in switching cars at Henry's, yesterday morning, was run over and had both his legs cut off.

W. H. Howerton, we hear, says the Blade, has been sentenced twelve months at Albany Penitentiary for robbing the mails on the W. N. C. Railroad.

The Albemarle Times says, we have determined to have a military company in Edenton. Already there are very near enough names to organize.

The Nutshell says Newbern is being overrun with myriads of little frogs, supposed to be in some way propagated by the recent heavy rains in that region.

A fire broke out in the cellar of Scarr & Co's drug store in Charlotte last Friday night, as we learn from the Observer, but was subdued by the active exertions of the fire companies and others before serious harm was done. The cellar had in it a quantity of kerosene and other oils, and an explosion was expected, but fortunately did not occur.

A Salisbury correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: Everybody is getting ready for the Methodist Conference, which meets here next month. The colored conference meets here about the same time.

Wilmington Star: A few days ago a boat containing Reed Register, a white man, and Benj. Pickett and Henry Hewlett, colored, was capsized near Shallotte, Brunswick county, and the two latter were drowned.

Concord Register: Charlie Downing and John Croaker, two boys, aged fifteen years each, picked 496 pounds of cotton on the plantation of Samuel Johnston, Esq., near Mill Hill, on the 19th. Croaker picked 251 and Downing 245. Who can beat it?

The sweet sounds of the church-going bells of Edenton have quite an influence over us. Would that we could respond to every one that rings its notes of warning to sinners.—Albemarle Times.

Respond to one of them with genuine repentance, and it will ail greatly in your reformation.

Lincoln Progress: James Wilson and wife, who were before the court on Thursday for infanticide, pleaded guilty of manslaughter and were sentenced to ten years at hard labor in the penitentiary. This case was removed here from Gaston county at the last term of that court. The incarnate fiends took the life of their infant child by beating its head into a pomice with a loaded stick.

An observatory has been erected on the summit of Stony mountain near Hendersonville. The Western Courier says, "on Tuesday, Capt. S. V. Pickens, with a good working force, commenced operations on the summit of the Stoney. The top of the mountain has been cleared of all obstructions to the magnificent view, and an observatory forty feet higher erected. The scenery from the observatory is said to be inexpressibly grand and magnificent. Steps have also been taken to clear out and grade a good road to the summit."

Charlotte Observer: On Friday, the 12th of October, R. B. Hunter, Esq., of Sharon township, had a horse stolen from the back lot near the old Rock Island factory. After a two weeks search he has found the thief. He is a white boy, not over twelve years old, named Anderson Huit, who lived with Joe McDade, Esq., in this city. He rode the horse to the house of his uncle, Dock Huit, about six miles from Newton, and stated that a man from Tennessee had told him to bring the horse there and stay till he came for it. Mr. Hunter recovered the horse without any trouble as soon as he found it, and brought the boy to the city last night.

SENATOR MERRIMON'S PENSION BILL.

The statement lately made in some Republican papers that Senator Merrimon had introduced a bill which places Confederate soldiers on the pension rolls is entirely false. Mr. Merrimon's bill simply repeals section 4,716 of the Revised Statutes, which prevents any pensioner of the war of 1812 and the war with Mexico who went with the South in the late civil war from receiving any further pension money, and places no one on the roll. It simply gives persons claiming pensions under existing laws the benefit of these laws without reference to the late civil war. This proposition substantially passed a Republican House of Representatives more than two years ago.

In regard to this bill and the hue and cry against it, raised by Washington Radical correspondents and Northern Radical newspapers the Baltimore Sun says:

"Mr. Merrimon, a North Carolina Senator, has introduced into the United States Senate a bill which proposes to place the few veterans of the war of 1812 who remain in the South on the pension list again. When the civil war broke out most of these men must have been three-score and ten, and not a few of them perhaps more, and therefore too old to fight, though their sympathies may have been naturally with their section. The merits of the measure scarcely call for discussion. The greatest military achievements of that war were won in the Southern States, and since 1867 the Democratic members of Congress have supported the proposition, as have nearly all the veterans of the war of 1812 in the North, and many pronounced Republican members of Congress. Yet, because Mr. Merrimon's bill repeals a section of the pension act that makes loyalty during the civil war a condition precedent of the payment of any pension, the repeal having simply for its object the placing of the Southern veterans of 1812 on the pension list again, some of the fledgeling Washington correspondents see in it a diabolical scheme to open the treasury of the United States to the men who fought against the Union. Nothing could be more absurd, mean and malicious. As a northern journal pettinently remarks, the Northern man who is haunted by the fear of the payment of pensions to Confederate soldiers shows scarcely more sense than the Southern man, if such a lunatic is to be found, who looks forward to such an impossible thing. In fact no one in the South entertains such a preposterous idea, and no one in the North knows this better than the vindictive defamers in the Northern press who are warning their section against this fiction of their own imaginations."

VIRGINIA invites immigration and is seeking to encourage it. A committee of the Virginia Improvement and Emigration Society, headed by Senator Johnston, have been addressing meetings throughout Pennsylvania with the object of inducing emigration to the Old Dominion. As proof of the rapid growth of the State they cite the fact that Danville ten years ago had a population of only 2,000, while now it has 12,000; and Richmond has increased from 37,000 inhabitants in 1860 to 75,000 this year. Land is declared to be cheap, and the profits from crops large, owing to the State lying upon the seaboard. The rate of taxation is also lower than in Northern States. These facts we gather from our exchanges, and we presume are authentic.

THE Postmaster General finds that there will be a deficiency of $284,000 in the appropriation for the salaries of postmasters for the present fiscal year, and Congress will be asked to make the necessary appropriation.

THE FEDERAL JUDICIARY.

Senator David Davis, of Illinois, is preparing a bill for presentation to the next session of Congress, concerning some modifications and changes of the Federal judiciary. It is, in some respects, similar to the bill introduced by Mr. McCrary, of Iowa, in the last Congress, providing for the formation of an intermediate appellate court in each United States Circuit Court, this appellate court to have jurisdiction of all cases of fact appealed from the Circuit and District Courts of each circuit. It would also have jurisdiction of criminal cases, whereas now there is no appeal from the decision of a circuit court in criminal cases. This court would not have jurisdiction over any case in which the amount involved exceeded $10,000, or in which any constitutional question or act of Congress was the point of issue.

Mr. McCrary's bill has a fatal defect, in that in lightening the labors of the Supreme Judges it doubles those of the already overworked Circuit Judges. Judge Davis hopes to improve matters for the Circuit Judges by increasing the number of judges from nine to eighteen—that is, have two Circuit Judges of co-ordinate jurisdiction in each of the present circuits. Then the Appellate Court could be made up of five judges in each circuit. Judge Davis believes that the only way to expedite matters in the Supreme Court is to divide it into sections, one taking this and another that branch of jurisprudence, the decision of each section to be final on matters submitted to it.

The new bill of Senator Davis, which is now in the rough, will be presented to the next session of Congress. He says it is an important measure, and one that demands earnest attention.

THE WESTERN DISTRICT COURT.

The Charlotte Observer favors the bill introduced by Congressman Waddell to abolish the Western District. The Observer says:

"The bill proposes to restore North Carolina to the same position in regard to the Federal Judiciary that it occupied before the Western District was created; that is to say, it re-establishes Judge Brooks as the United States Judge of the District of North Carolina, and imposes upon him the holding of the courts of what is now the Western District in addition to the discharge of his own present duties. We think this idea will meet with popular favor. It is very desirable that Judge Dick and Marshal Douglas be gotten rid of, and as the impeachment of the former is impracticable, and the retention of the latter seems to be a fixed fact, notwithstanding all the testimony which has been laid before the President and Attorney General going to establish his incompetency and malfeasance, we are in favor of the next best plan, if, indeed it is not the best, which is to abolish the district. Judge Brooks' duties are not onerous, and he will find no difficulty in doing all the work. He is a good man, a good lawyer and a just Judge. Under his administration of the revenue laws, justice would be meted out to all of our [illegible] and the many evil practices which have sprung up under the reign of Judge Dick and Marshal Douglas would disappear."

THE UNIVERSITY.

The University of North Carolina is the only State University in the whole Union not accesible by railway. It is a great inconvenience to the public and a most serious drawback to the permanent success of the institution that ours should still remain an exception to the rule. President Battle, with his zeal and energy for the success of the institution over which he so acceptably presides, cannot strike a better blow for the cause he has so much at heart than by procuring a railroad to the doors of the University. If he will take the matter in hand we feel sure that he can accomplish the construction of the road.

GENERAL PEYTON WISE, chief marshal of the Virginia State Fair, suggests to the people of Richmond that they unite with those who engage in the procession in extending to the President of the United States the most hearty welcome. "It is their traditionary duty as Virginians," he says, "and it is his due, whether in respect of the high office he holds or of the just and benevolent manner in which he has exercised it towards the people of the common country, and especially those of the South."

PRESIDENT HAYES is recorded as expressing the belief that the idea of "go West, young man," was fast leaving the public mind of the North, and everybody was now saying "go South," and he believed in a few years the tide of immigration Southward would be very great.

MORE country post routes and post offices is what our people ask of their delegation in Congress. Abridge the waste of money on fast daily mails for cities and give the country people a chance.

THE Virginia State Fair opens to-day. It promises to be a great success. The number of entries exceed those of any previous exhibition in the State.

[Baltimore Sun.]

West Virginia having been declared by the Protestant Episcopal Church a separate and distinct diocese, a convention will be held the latter part of November for the purpose of electing a bishop. In this convention both ministerial and lay delegates will be entitled to a vote. The number of votes are as follows: Ministerial 15, parishes 23, each of which will have a lay representative. The total number of communicants in the new diocese is 1,350.

Earl Russell hardly reminds one now of the Lord John of twenty years ago. A correspondent of the Enquirer, of Cincinnati, says: "I saw him yesterday, clad in furs—a little heap of wrinkled humanity."

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY.....OCTOBER 30, 1877.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only ONE DOLLAR per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

A picture hangs on my study wall
Of a stately maiden, fair and tall:
Like a graceful flower, on supple stem,
Her head, with its regal diadem
Of braided strands in shaded brown,
Wears like a blossom fair nature's crown;
While fluffy tendrils about her brow,
The soft west winds seems lifting now.

I turn my ear to catch the word
(For a sound from those lips I surely heard),
While the eyes from their depths of tenderest hue,
As well as the lips are speaking, too!
No, I am deceived—she did not speak,
For the rounded outline of either cheek
Is unbroken by dimples, while at her throat
The filmy lace imprisons the note.

So, ivy wreathed among my books,
A fair Minerva she sweetly looks.
While she silently watches me day by day.
My thoughts from the picture will wander away
To her fairer self—oh, painter's art!
You never can picture a woman's heart.
And a stranger who only her sweet face can see
Can never know what she is to me!

NEWS NOTES.

According to the Louisville Courier-Journal game is better protected by Kentucky law than men.

"Courtship is bliss," said an ardent young man. "Yes, and matrimony is blister," snarled an old bachelor

Dick Turpin used to say, "Your money or your life." The present highwayman says, "Lend me a quarter."

General Grant will have a fete at the the Italian Opera House, Paris, on the 3d of November. He will occupy the State box, and the house will be decorated with American emblems.

The Emperor William is to have a golden wedding next Spring, and very great festivities are expected in Berlin. Many potentates are to attend it, and it is even hoped that Queen Victoria will appear.

The Dutch railway officials never grant any free passes on their roads, and, in consequence, all of them pay good dividends. Even clergymen have to pay full fare, which is only at the rate of one cent a mile.

A subscriber to a Southwestern newspaper died recently, leaving four years' subscription unpaid. The editor appeared at the grave and deposited in the coffin a palm-leaf fan, a linen coat and a thermometer. Moral—well, that's obvious.

Hunter is a politician, and the othor night he determined to pop the question. He called at the young lady's house and said, "I propose we go into caucus and nominate a joint ticket." Smith happening to come in just then said, "I dispute the title of the delegate."

Mr. Spurgeon gave his congregation the other day some personal information concerning hats. He said that in his younger days the chimney-pot hat was indispensable if a preacher wished to maintain his respectability; but that he now wore any kind of a hat, regardless of consequences.

Courier-Journal: The Republicans object to making themselves at home at the White House because "the Democrats crowd around Hayes." It is getting to be a prevalent opinion, however, that the President is President for the whole people, and that the White House is a national inn. No party can monopolize either.

The Russian war estimates for another year require the issue of $346,500,000 in paper roubles. There is already in circulation $676,290,000 of paper currency, depreciated 25 per cent., so that there is every reason to believe the Czar will try and close up his business with Sultan Hamid as speedily as possible. Russia's public debt now is about $2,200,000,000. The Turks are using tons of counterfeit paper money manufactured by a German printing house, which grinds it out in avalanches.

The Boston Traveller declares Professor Seelye out of the Republican party for saying in his Holyoke speech, Friday last that the Republican reconstruction policy in the Southern States was a demonstrated mistake. Professor Seelye will survive the Traveller's excommunication. He also went so far as to say that after the war was closed the "rebel States had as much right to representation in the national Congress and to all the privileges of government as ever."

It is related that when Andrew Jackson was military commander in Florida, he had tried at drumhead court-martial, sentenced and hanged, two Englishmen who had tried to incite insurrection among the Indians. President Monroe feared that Great Britian would be indignant, and summoned Jackson to Washington to be reprimanded. Secretary Adams defended Jackson and made a long argument, in which he quoted international law as expounded by Grotius, Vattel and Puffendorf. Jackson listened in sullen silence, but when that evening, asked at a dinner party whether he was not comforted by Mr. Adams's citation of authorities, he exclaimed: "What do I care about those old musty chaps? Blast Grotius, blast Vattel and blast the Puffendorf. This is a fight between Jim Monroe and me, and I propose to fight it out."

Convention of Fertilizer Manufacturers.

[Baltimore Sun, Oct. 26.]

The National Association of Commercial Fertilizer Manufacturers met in yearly session yesterday at Raine's Hall, Gustavus Ober President, R. W. L. Rasin Secretary, and representatives from firms as follows: Popplein Silicated Phosphorate Company, Baltimore; I. V. Kessler, A. C. Fergusson, United States Fertilizer Company, Philadelphia; J. J. Allen's Sons, Philadelphia; P. Zell & Sons, Piedmont Guano Company; John S. Reese & Co., Chesapeake Guano Company, and Walton, Wham & Co., Wilmington, Del. The question of taking uniform action in regard to the sale of fertilizers was discussed, and correspondence from different sections of the subject was read. A resolution was adopted as the sense of the association opposing the trading of fertilizers for cotton, and that the prepayment of interior freights be discontinued.

It was reported that the North Carolina "privilege tax" on chemical fertilizer manufacturers is practically inoperative, and it was with some difficulty that a manufacturer could get four bags seized so that a test case might be made. The question will be before the State and United States District Courts shortly for decision. The fertilizer inspection laws of Georgia were severely criticised by the association. All said they were proscriptive, and the officials to enforce them have receded from their severest provisions. Messrs. G. W. Graffin, G. O. Manning and W. Judson Brown were appointed to confer with parties in Georgia on the subject.

Resolutions of respect for the late Mr. John S. Reese, first president of the association, who died last July, were unanimously adopted. Adjourned to May, 1878, at Baltimore.

It is the most perfect and economical in use. The Boiler is of new design, being vertical, yet all the heating surface is entirely covered with water, thus preventing the fire from destroying the tubes as is the case, in a few years, in all upright tubular boilers in which the fire passes through the tubes above the water line, soon destroying the exposed end of the tubes causing them to leak.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—We are indebted to Hon. R. B. Vance, M. C., for Congressional records of latest dates.

—We learn that a young man named Jones, living in the Rolesville section, had his hand badly mangled in a cotton gin yesterday.

—Abstracts of taxes were received at the Auditor's office yesterday from the Registers of Deeds of the counties of Columbus, Surry and Yadkin.

—To-morrow, Wednesday, October 31st, is the anniversary of "Reformation Day," usually observed by the Lutheran Church with appropriate services and ceremonies.

—There are held in the Raleigh postoffice for want of postage, a letter addressed to Alfred Lawrence, Clover, York county, S. C., and one to Robert Hunter, St. Charles hotel, Richmond, Va.

—The man put in the lock-up Saturday for maltreating his wife and family while intoxicated, was released by His Honor, Mayor Manly yesterday, on a pledge of behaving better for the future.

—Yesterday was a beautiful, mild, pleasant autumnal day, when honey bees and pretty women were out in swarms, the former gathering sweets and the latter scattering them in the shape of honeyed smiles as bright as the sunshine.

—Col. Polk yesterday addressed letters to all our members of Congress asking them to forward to him such books, maps and other contributions that they may be able to do from Washington, that would be valuable to the State Department of Agriculture.

—We noticed that Capt. Lee, Chief of police, was having the interior of the market house washed and scoured out nicely yesterday. Now if the city authorities will order a good coat of whitewash or paint all round, it will add greatly to the appearance of the place.

The Courts.

Justice C. D. Upchurch had before him Albert Copeland on a charge of drawing his knife on and throwing stones at Mary Hight and another dusky damsel, on Sunday. The Magistrate wanted Albert to give him a tangible assurance in the shape of a $50 justified bond to meet Judge Strong and his grand jury at the November term of Wake Criminal Court, but Albert couldn't do it and was consequent'y committed.

Maria Dorum, colored, stole a pair of shoes from another colored woman Saturday, of which fact satisfactory evidence was adduced, and Maria not being able to give a bond for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, was sent to jail.

Phil. Perry, drunk and disorderly on Sunday, was fined $5 and costs.

Tabitha Bitters and Osborn Bryant got drunk and kicked up a rumpus on Sunday, ending in an affray, for which they were sent to jail in default of bonds for their appearance at November term of the Criminal Court.

W. Hall and W. S. Walden, disorderly conduct, fined each $5 and costs.

Mammoth Cotton.

Col. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture, showed us, on Friday, an open boll of cotton sent to his department by Mr. J. L. Dunn, residing near Dawson's X Roads, Halifax county, N. C., which is a long way ahead of anything in the cotton line we ever saw before. The boll has between thirty and forty locks of cotton fully open, and in its expanded state is about five inches in diameter. The cotton, after making a fair deduction for the hull, is estimated to weigh 1 3-5 ounces or ten bolls to make a pound. It is well worth going a considerable distance to see, and we suggest to our country friends, especially farmers, when they come to Raleigh to go up to Col. Polk's office and see it. The Colonel will take pleasure in showing them that and many other things worth looking at.

The Deaf and Dumb Institute.

This institution is now under regular organization for the term. There are in the white department 115 pupils—60 deaf and dumb and 55 blind. In the colored department, which is in a separate building but under the same management, 59 pupils—47 deaf and dumb and 12 blind.

The new pupils for the present term are 25 whites and 7 colored; equal to the number received up to the same time of the session for both the years 1875 and 1876. There are yet a good many both deaf and dumb and blind in the State who ought to be in the institution.

A Liberal Donation.

A member of the building committee of the parsonage of the Swain Street Baptist Church informs us that Messrs. Hunter & Beckwith and Mr. J. W. Rogers, of Apex, have contributed a car load of lumber, worth about $30, towards the new parsonage.

The amount realized from the eating saloon at the recent fair, run by the lady members of that church, was $133.25, and about forty dollars worth of furniture.

Vance and Hampton.

We find the following in the Richmond Enquirer of Sunday: It was stated yesterday that Governor Hampton would not find it possible to come to our Fair. This, if it proves to be a fact, will be a great disappointment, as it was fully expected that he would deliver the annual address before the Agricultural Society. In the event of his absence Governor Vance, it is announced, will deliver the address.

Military Notes.

Lieut. Fred. A. Olds, of the State Ordinance Department, was promoted yesterday to the rank of Captain, appointment to date from October 16th, 1877.

It gives me pleasure to announce that I can offer to an impartial public, goods at prices that have never yet been eclipsed in the city of Raleigh. My stock is the largest I have ever had—and I can assure my friends that I can satisfy them in all things in my line, as to quality, quantity and price. Live and let live.

The Weldon Fair.

Our correspondent sent in an account of the winding up scenes of the Weldon Fair, including an account of the races on Friday, but as the horses had to make their way over the track ankle deep in water and mud, they of course gave no test of their running or trotting qualities, and therefore a report would be of no special interest.

Of the future prospects of the society our correspondent has the following:

"The attendance for the last day was good At night there was a meeting of the Executive Committee to supervise the award of premiums and finish up the business of the society. The Fair was a magnificent success in all its details, and the society enters on another year of usefulness and progress without one dollar of indebtedness, and with money in the treasury. The society has cause to congratulate itself in the judicious selection of its officers for the ensuing year. Its future is full of hope, and we predict for the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society brilliant success."

Another Sudden Death.

Mr. Everitt D. Whitley, who resided in Wilder's township, Johnston county, died very suddenly on Saturday evening last. He had set down to supper, and after eating only a few mouthfuls, complained of feeling badly and started for his dwelling house, a few feet from the one in which the family took their meals, but fell before reaching the house, and died in a short time after being taken up and placed on a bed. The cause of his death was pronounced by the physician who was sent for, to be paralysis of the brain. He was about 45 years old, and leaves a wife and six children.

Lay in Fuel.

It is a wise plan to lay in a supply of fuel for winter in advance, before the roads get bad and the prices of wood and coal rise. So thought a young professional gentleman of this city, yesterday, who went to one of our coal merchants and ordered a supply of anthracite for his office. He intended to get a box fixed up in his office to put the coal in when it arrived. Presently the dray drove up and dumped a load in front of the office door; about a ton of it; it looked rather too big a bulk to be stored in a box, and as there were two more tons to come, not only the capacity of the box, but the stability of the office floor, also, became a matter of grave doubt. Reflection on the subject resulted in an arrangement with the landlord for the rental of a portion of the cellar; the coal was reloaded and hauled around the block to the rear entrance and deposited for winter use. Three tons of coal cannot be conveniently stored in a goods box.

Personal.

Hon. Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston, and Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, D. D., of Greensboro, were registered at the Yarbrough House last night.

Cotton Yesterday.

Josh Billings' Almanac says: "About this time look out for cold weather." And it should have added:—Keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in readiness.

Good Again.

Lumsden's tin ware took the premium at the fair, being the best handmade ware on the grounds. And his "Old North State" cook stove took the premium as being the best wood cook stove exhibited.

This makes three fairs in succession at which Lumsden's goods have taken the [illegible] goods. He is selling other stoves at cost to make room for the "Old North State."

L. R. Wyatt.

(Successor to Rand & Wyatt,) will continue the wholesale and retail grocery and cotton business at the old stand, where he will be pleased to serve customers and friends of the late firm with First Class Flour, Bacon, Lard, Sugar, Coffe, Molasses, Salt, Bagging and Ties &c., at prices to suit.

Consignments of Cotton, Flour &c., solicited for storage and sale which will have prompt attention in sales and returns.

Short Dresses.

[Baltimore Sun.]

It is stated that short walking dresses are now the mode in Paris, and as American women are the slaves of the fashions set in that fine city it would be well that they be not too long in finding out the facts about the short dresses. Let us congratulate the "fair" that between the practice of dragging their dresses through the mud and this other extreme of carrying the long skirt in the hand, Paris has at last hit the true average by introducing dresses that will neither sweep the pavements nor impede the wearers when walking.

A Complicated Case,

ARLINGTON, GA., Jan. 9, 1876.

DR. PIERCE:

Dear Sir: I was sick for six years, and for two years could scarcely walk about the house. My breath was short and I suffered from pain in my brea t and stomach all the time; also from palpitation and an interal fever, or burning sensation, and experienced frequent smothering or choking sensations. I also suffered from pain down across my bowels and in my back, and was much reduced in flesh. I now feel like a different person, my health is so good. I have used seven bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription, and feel that I am well.

Very respectfully,
DELILAH B. McMILLAN.
